Southern California Special Education Administrators

Best Practices for Administrators and Administrative Designees in an IEP

Participants will review best practices and tips for Administrators and Administrative Designees in IEP meetings. An overview of applicable laws and regulations will be reviewed. Participants will gain a better understanding of the role of Administrators and the Regular Education Program in child find, evaluating eligibility, preparing for IEP meetings, developing and revising IEP's, and responding to parent requests.

Additionally, a panel of administrators will answer questions and provide feedback on best practices related to IEP meetings.

Presenter: Sarah L.W. Sutherland, Esq.

Sarah L.W. Sutherland is a Shareholder in the San Diego office of Dannis Woliver Kelley. She is the Chair of the firm's Charter Schools practice group and a member of the Students and Special Education practice groups. Sarah is a passionate advocate for her educational agency clients, and strives to achieve positive and practical, student-oriented results that are cost effective.

Sarah represents school districts, county offices of education, and special education local plan areas in student and special education issues, and matters involving charter schools. She is well experienced in administrative hearings and procedures involving students and charter schools. She excels at training and other preventative uses of legal counsel. Her passion for public education and the important work our clients do is evident in her practical, thoughtful and collaborative approach to legal services.
