Susan McDonald, M.S., CCC-SLP

Speaker Information

Susan McDonald, M.S., CCC-SLP is a state-licensed and ASHA certified speech-language pathologist with over 20 years of experience working as a SLP in public schools, private clinics, and home health. She currently serves as Program Director and faculty for the Speech-Language Pathology Assistant Program at Cerritos College in Norwalk, California. Susan recently completed a second master's degree in Instructional Design and Technology from CSU-Fullerton. She has developed professional development workshops for online learning and presented on topics such as supervision, appropriate assessment for culturally and linguistically diverse children, and vocabulary development.

Disclosure

Susan McDonald is paid an honorarium for teaching this course on supervision. She has no non-financial relationship.

Course Description

This workshop will identify key aspects of communication that are an integral part of the supervision experience. Participants will learn different types of communication strategies for the different activities involved in supervision, such as providing feedback, developing critical thinking skills, and evaluation.

Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of this session participants will be able to:

- Compare and contrast the types of communication used in the supervision experience
- Describe 3 communication strategies that can be used during 3 different supervision activities
- Evaluate the appropriateness of a communication strategy given a specific situation
