She has developed professional development workshops for online learning and presented on topics such as supervision, appropriate assessment for culturally and linguistically diverse children, and vocabulary development.

Disclosure

Susan McDonald is paid an honorarium for teaching this course on supervision. She has no non-financial relationship.

Course Description

This workshop will explore the purpose and implementation of feedback in the supervision experience. The role of feedback in various supervisory activities will be discussed. In addition, considerations for providing feedback to supervisees will be reviewed. Participants will learn various ways to provide feedback to supervisees for the different components and stages of the supervision experience.

Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of this session participants will be able to:

- Identify the purpose of feedback in the supervision experience
- Describe 3 supervisory activities in which feedback may be given
- Apply an appropriate feedback method given a specific situation
