Susan McDonald, M.S., CCC-SLP

Speaker Information

Susan McDonald, M.S., CCC-SLP is a state-licensed and ASHA certified speech-language pathologist with over 20 years of experience working as a SLP in public schools, private clinics, and home health. She currently serves as Program Director and faculty for the Speech-Language Pathology Assistant Program at Cerritos College in Norwalk, California. Susan completed a second master's degree in Instructional Design and Technology from CSU-Fullerton in 2022. She has developed professional development workshops for online learning and presented on topics such as supervision, appropriate assessment for culturally and linguistically diverse children, and vocabulary development.

Disclosure

Susan McDonald is paid an honorarium for teaching this course on supervision. She has no non-financial relationship.

Course Description

This workshop will discuss steps that the clinical supervisor can take to provide a positive and productive learning experience for their supervisees. Establishing expectations and utilizing a variety of supervisory styles will be highlighted. Participants will also learn various teaching strategies to support different types of learners.

Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of this session participants will be able to:

- Identify key aspects of a clinical orientation for the supervisee
- Describe 4 qualities essential for establishing a positive learning environment
- Explain the 3 strategic questioning levels from Barnum & Guyer's SQF model
- Describe a key teaching skill that can be used in supervision
